No Way

Sonic Youth

Sweet temptation came today Time for angels to kneel and pray I saw you hangin' with the devil Evil nature, frozen graveRenounce your lies, sweet succubi, oh, no I don't care, I don't wanna hear it 'Cause I'm not talkin' to you no more And I'm never ever gonna shadow your door no way, hey, hey There's just no way, hey, hey, no wayYou know you hurt me once And you know you'll never hurt me again 'Cause I'm sick of all your games You can't trick my love with sinSinners lie I will never die, I said no I don't care, I don't wanna hear it 'Cause I'm not talkin' to you no more And I'm never ever gonna shadow your door no way, hey, hey There's just no way, hey, hey, no waySweet temptation came today Time for angels to kneel and pray Your black wings are bound in chains As I swoop into your graveWerewolf commandos, poison tongue, I said no I don't care, I don't wanna hear it 'Cause I'm not talkin' to you no more And I'm never ever gonna shadow your door no way, hey, hey There's just no way, hey, hey, no way
