Natalie Merchant

Young and strong Hollywood son
In the early morning light
This star fell down

On Sunset BoulevardYoung and strong beautiful one

We embraced so close

Is gone

Was torn awayLet the youth of America mourn

Include him in their prayers

Let his image linger on

Repeat it everywhereWith candles, with flowers

He was one of ours

One of oursWhy don't you let him be?

He's gone

We know

Give his mother and his father peaceYour vulture's candor, your casual slander

You murder his memory

He's gone, we know

It's nothing but a tragedyLay to rest your soul and body

Lay beside your name

Lay to rest your rage

Your hunger and amazing graceWith candles, with flowers

You were one of ours

One of oursI saw cameras expose your life

I heard rumors explode with lies

I saw children in tears

Cry and crowd around the sightOf where you had collapsed that day

Where your last breath and word had been sighed

Where your heart had burst

And where you had died

Where you had died

Where you had diedI saw how they were lost in grieving

All half believing if you were gone

The loss and pain of it

Crime and the shame of it, you were gone

It was such a nightmare raving

"How could we save him from himself?"I saw how they were lost in grieving

All half believing, you were gone

The loss and pain of it

Crime and the shame of it, you were gone

It was such a nightmare raving
