

I Wanna Go Wild

Death By Unga Bunga

Time runs old and the night is freezing, yeah I'm cold
I'm inside looking out wondering if my baby will come home.

Broken dreams and a bottle of gin is all I have, but if my baby comes in then I'll be fine.

Yeah, then I will be fine.

I wanna go wild

Last words she said was "boy I've had enough, this is goodbye".
"Theres nothing that can save us now, it's gone too far, lord knows that I have tried".

What she says it sticks to your head,
runs through your mind, no rest for tonight.

I'm going out.

I wanna go wild.

I wanna go wild.

You know that I want you, and I know that you want me.

I wanna go wild.

I'll do anything, I'll fight
I'll keep running through the night
just to make it right.

Everything to you I owe take my drugs and lose control.

Come back home

Is there no one in this place that can help me get my mind back, set me straight.
Is there nothing here to ease the pain, get back on track, my mind is left astray

What she says it sticks to your head,
runs through your mind, no rest for tonight.

I'm going out.

I wanna go wild.
