Into The Airwaves

Jack's Mannequin

From an empty room on the first floor
As the cars pass by the liquor store
I deconstruct my thoughts at this piano
And it's all that I can do to stay with
All the things I didn't say to you
Before you moved across the country
And from the burning building where I lay
As I watch the stars become the day
The L.A. girls were lacing up their sneakers
They run the boardwalks and the beach
This fishbowl life is all they need
It's everything I needed too
Until I heard the news
I'll send this message through the speakers
They told me that you moved
I'll cross this country on a frequency
But I am slipping through, I am slipping through
I am slipping into the airwaves
And this is nothing new, you are slipping through
My fingers and into the airwaves
The static's where you'll find me
From the corner by the studio
The gold-soaked afternoon comes slow
I deconstruct my thoughts and I am walking by
On third street, the freak show thrives
Santa Monica's alive, but
Something's not so right inside
Living with the news
I'll send this message through the speakers
They told me that you moved
I'll cross this country on a frequency
But I am slipping through, I am slipping through
I am slipping into the airwaves
The static's where you'll find me

And this is nothing new, you are slipping through
My fingers and into the airwaves
Into the airwaves
So hold on, it's gonna be a hard day

So hang on
Don't panic, don't panic
There simply is no need
It's gonna be a hard day
It's gonna be a hard day
Don't panic, don't panic
We are hanging here
We are hanging here
I am slipping through, I am slipping through
I am slipping into the airwaves
The static's where you'll find me
And this is nothing new, you are slipping through
My fingers and into the airwaves
Into the airwaves
It's gonna be a hard day
It's gonna be a hard day
So hang on
Don't panic, don't panic
There simply is no need
It's gonna be a hard day
It's gonna be a hard day
It's gonna be a hard day
Don't panic, don't panic
We are hanging here
It's gonna be a hard day
But we are hanging here
It's gonna be a hard day
We are hanging here
We are hanging here
