Struck By Lightning

Frankmusik

And I didnt know how to love
And I didnt know to cry
And I didnt know how to run
And I just want to fly away
A coward only stays, stays
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than break it off tonight
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than try to make you cry
Than try to make you cry
And I thought I knew how to care
And I thought I knew how to try
And I thought if I held her close
I can make
I can make
I can make her laugh again
But a coward only stays as friends
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than break it off tonight
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than try to make you cry
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than break it off tonight
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than try to make you cry
And I wait for sky to clear
And I wish Id disappear
I can never be your love
I can never be your love
I can never be your love
Your love
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than break it off tonight
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than try to make you cry
Id rather be struck by lightning
Than break it off tonight
Id rather be struck by lightning
And try to make it right

And I wait for sky to clear
And I wish Id disappear
