

Last Christmas (live)

Manic Street Preachers

                  Last Christmas
I gave you my heart
                  The very next day
You gave it awayThis year
                  To stop me from tears
I'll give it to someone specialLast Christmas
                  I gave you my heart
                  The very next day
You gave it awayThis year
                  To stop me from tears
I'll give it to someone specialOnce bitten but twice shy
                  I keep my distance
But you still catch my eyeTell me baby
                  Do you recognise me?
                  It's been a year
It doesn't surprise meHappy Christmas
                  I wrapped it up and sent it
                  With a note saying
"I loved you, I meant it"Now I know what a fool I've been
                  But if you kissed me now
I know you'd fool me againLast Christmas
                  I gave you my heart
                  The very next day
You gave it awayThis year
                  To save me from tears
I'll give it to someone specialLast Christmas
                  I gave you my heart
                  The very next day
You gave it awayThis year
                  To stop me from tears
I'll give it to someone special
