On My Way

Lea Michele

My words are wrapped in barbwire
My actions speak for what I can't say
'Cause I fall one step forward
To push you away, push you awayI wish that I could listen
To all the advice that I give away
But it's hard to see things clearly
Through all of the pain, all of the painI'm caught in the rain, caught in the rainAnd my heart's too drunk to drive
I should stay away from you tonight
But in this blackout state of mind
Baby all I want is you tonightWhen my head tells me "no"
My heart tells me "go"
So I'm hitting in the road 'cause II know my heart's too drunk to drive
But I'm on my way to you
Yeah, I'm on my way
To you, you, to you tonight
I'm on my way to you, you
To you, I'm on my wayYeah there's a million voices
Screaming that this love's a dead-end road
But the only voice that I hear
Is telling me "go", telling me "go"The sun is rising sober
While passion fades and I'm on my own
My helpless heart's hangover
I'm all out of hope, all out of hopeWhere do we go? Where do we go?Cause my heart's too drunk to drive
I should stay away from you tonight
But in this blackout state of mind
Baby all I want is you tonightWhen my head tells me "no"
My heart tells me "go"
So I'm hitting the road 'cause II know my heart's too drunk to drive
But I'm on my way to you
Yeah, I'm on my way
To you, you, to you tonight
I'm on my way to you, you
To you, I'm on my wayAnd no one's words can stop me
I'm past the point of no return
No matter how it hurts me
I'm running to you, running to youAnd my heart's too drunk to drive
I should stay away from you tonight
But in this blackout state of mind
Baby all I want is you tonightWhen my head tells me "no"

My heart tells me "go"
So I'm hitting the road 'cause II know my heart's too drunk to drive
But I'm on my way to you
Yeah, I'm on my way
To you, you, to you tonight
I'm on my way to you, you
To you, I'm on my way to you
