Feel

Avalon

Songwriters: Ian Ashley Esklein, Brittany Nicole Waddell
I'm standing in Your presence
So why am I so numb?
Could I be too jaded to be overcome?
I'm tired of all my half beliefs
And walking in my sleep
I wanna feel crash into my heart
I know You're real but we are worlds apart
God, I've had enough of a pathetic love
I wanna feel
I'm falling at Your alter empty and confused
I wanna know emotion
I wanna be consumed
I'm desperate for the grace You give

To let Your spirit live
I wanna feel crash into my heart
I know You're real but we are worlds apart
God, I've had enough of a pathetic love
I wanna feel
Stirring in my soul
I wanna lose control
I wanna feel crash into my heart
I know You're real but we are worlds apart
God, I've had enough of apathetic love
I wanna feel
God, I wanna feel
God, I wanna feel
