Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I am empty and I'm tired
And I'm homesick and inspired
I can't know everything that you know
'Cause I'm learning as I go
I wanna see your love, I wanna see your love When I wake up, I'm the same
'Cause I sleep well when I dream away
Bluebird house on fire like an only child
I wanna see your love, I wanna see your love When I'm in your arms
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
When I'm in your arms, girl
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down All the fires on the ground
Are laughing with their crackling sound
I don't fight, I don't scream, I don't listen to anything
I wanna see your love, I wanna see your love When I'm in your arms
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
When I'm in your arms, girl
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down I am selfish without you
I'm over and you're always new
I'll never let you down from your tower
Or take away your crown When I'm in your arms
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
When I'm in your arms, girl

Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me downNothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
Nothing can bring me down
