

Never Come Back

Kas Product

Slow turn out on the corner

I will paint your picture and post it in the street

And you can best believe

I'll kill you like I want to

I will bury you in deepAll the thoughts I think of you are constant now

Stones will cover up your eyes and keep you from the sea...Now everyone's on top of it

You're runnin' from a gamble

Even the nosy neighbors turn

I'll mark my lesson learnedAll the thoughts I think of you are constant now

Crowds will gather in their black dress, sing a melody...How you cleared the room that night, broke the mirror and spilled the wine

And when your mother died, made me sign the line

My body still, against my willYou're dirty, sick. I don't exist.Ooh ooh ooh, ahh ahh ahh ahh

Ooh ooh ooh, ahh ahh ahh ahh

You'll never come back

You'll never come back!
