She Would Never

The Stereo

I understand what you're going through but not these stupid things you do it's just another part of you but she would never go with me and she would never go with me every now and then you make up your face to pretend you know it's shame what they say it's in awful taste well this time my friend it's the end the only one who understands the only guy who'll stand by your side tonight who dries all the tears you cry now you're out of control but you seem to think it don't show you know it's a shame what they say it's in real bad taste but they might have a point it's your life that you waste I tried my best to reach you I tried my best but it's the same thing it's always the same thing if you wanna slip away and leave us today it won't make your problems just go away she turned around to walk away a different guy for everyday this is a song of much dismay still she would never go with me
and she would never go with me
