

C'mon Please

Beau

Come back to me, I can set you free
You don't wanna go alone
You don't wanna be with me
We can relieve, you don't have to tease
You're only going down, from here baby
Come back to me, I can show you the night
I got at home, where I can show you the light I'll walk on my knees, just to make you believe You're only going down from here, baby (x2) Falling down to my knees, oh won't you come on please, oh won't you come on please,
Falling down to my knees, oh wont you come on please, oh wont you come on please.
(x2) Come back to me, the night is still young
We're all waiting just to hear your song
You've got the melody and the words, all you need is just to be heard So, come back to me, relieve your bad dreams
You're only going down from here, baby
(x2) Falling down to my knees, oh won't you come on please, oh won't you come on please,
Falling down to my knees, oh wont you come on please, oh wont you come on please.
(x2) How can one forget the sweetest taste,
Of things moving on that life won't bring
Once they, they are gone you'll never be reminded again
Of the sweetest taste of things moving on To a place that gives more than it takes
What is lost can't be replaced
The further I fall, the harder it is To get up till I find the hiding place Falling down to my knees, oh won't you come on please, oh won't you come on please,
Falling down to my knees, oh wont you come on please, oh wont you come on please.
(x2)
