

Shadow

Wild Nothing

oh why is your hate so predicting and i well i wonder where youve been and ill see you under i try to feel something for you but thats all that i can do give my shadow to you do you ever see me at night and does it please you at all when you head up the wall id go with you if you asked me to and we wouldnt get to far two strangers in the dark
