Destroy

Shout Out Louds

Nothing is for sure no more
Nothing's what it used to be
Now black is the only color I know
The only color to meA change is always good if you want it
A change is always good, right?
Now blue is the only color I know
The only color tonightI see it all collapse
Under what might be
The first and the last
To get me where I want
I need my palette back
I wish I could, just to collapseI see it out the window, leaving
I see it slippin' away
Not sure it's the only word I know
Destroy, destroy, destroyA change is always good if you want it
A change is always good, right?
Now blue is the only color I know
The only color tonightI see it all collapse
Under what might be
The first and the last
To get me where I want
I need my palette back
I wish I could, just to collapse
I wish I could, just to collapse
I wish I could, just to collapseNothing is for sure no more
Nothing's what it used to be
Now black is the only color I know
The only color to meA change is always good if you want it
A change is always good, right?
Now blue is the only color I know
The only color tonightThe only color to me
The only color tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
