Hate

Kiss

Hate is what I am
'Cause underneath this heart
There beats the heart of manYou wear your crown
When you're lyin' six feet underground
Don'tcha think it's odd
Man was created in the image of GodAll you martyrs and saviors
Go through the same door
Listen, all you butchers, saints and sinners
We've all been here beforeYes, hate is what I am
'Cause underneath this heart
There beats the heart of manSo you're lookin' for a savior
But I'm here to tell ya
You gotta save yourself
Lead a lamb to slaughter
All you ever did was follow ordersAll you martyrs and saviors
Go through the same door
Listen, all you butchers, saints and sinners
We've all been here beforeAll you martyrs and saviors
Go through the same door
Hey, listen all you butchers, saints and sinners
We've all been here beforeHate, hate
Yes, hate is what I am
'Cause underneath this heart
There beats the heart of man
Man, man
