Southern Air

Yellowcard

I've watched the world go by outside a window I still can't believe where I am now
It's been forever long Adventures come and gone and i'm left alone
but not let down
'Cause I have found a gravity
A voice that pulls me to my needs Telling me remember where you're from
This southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see
Camera sets behind my eyes
All the colors of my life
This southern air is in my lungs
Listen every word i've sung
It seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
I thought about the day
When I could truly say i'm better now here I am
'Cause I have left this gravity grab a hold and carry me and I will not Forget where I am from
Forget where I am from
This southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see

Camera sets behind my eyes
All the colors of my life
This southern air is in my lungs
listen every word i've sung
seems the only truth I know
this will always be home
always be home
always be home
The sun lays down inside the ocean, i'm right where I belong Feel the air and salts on my skin the future's coming on And after living through these wild years coming out alive
I just want to lay my head here and stop running for a while

This southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see
Camera sets behind my eyes
All the colors of my life
This southern air is in my lungs
Listen every word i've sung
Seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
Always be home
Always be home
This will always be home
This southern air is in my lungs
Listen every word i've sung
Seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
