First Light

Moonspell

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Somewhere inside a soul
A shadow is taking over
My questions are being answered
An act of courageMy story is being told
Somewhere inside these four walls
Another war has begunThe prodigal son came home tonight
To slay his father and drink his bloodNoite eterna, primeira vida
Ainda por revelar
Noite eterna, primeira sombra
Ainda por revelarWith the violence of a first light
With the violence of a first lightSomewhere in the rows of death
A leader is being false
His cities are catching fire
But he doesn't hear
His people screamingSomewhere as the morning breaks
Steps are heard in the shattering glass
The bride to be returned to the feast
To make love endNoite eterna, primeira vida
Ainda por revelar
Noite eterna, primeira sombra
Ainda por revelarWith the violence of a first light
With the violence of a first lightHordes of the shadow sun
Afire with the intuition
We are a race of sorrows beholding
The tear and the wear of the earthWe are a race of sorrows beholding
The tear and the wear of the earthFirst light, cursed be
First light, cursed be
