Faraway

Supergrass

Yesterday seems faraway and I can see it true
I don't believe you're leaving me with nothing on the tube
Operating slowly as the air is growing thin
Wake me up each morning don't forget to plug me in
Have you seen me lately I'm as happy as a loon
Wait until your ship comes in and pasturise your crew'Cos I don't believe in a life that I can't feel
And I don't believe in a life that I can't feelConstellaions overhead shine lightly down on you
Their influences are related to your present mood
And I can see you're on your own although your heart is true
So come in cos your card is up your time is overdue'Cos I don't believe in a life that I can't feel
And I don't believe in a life that I can't feel
