

The Beginning of the End

Pinact

I must confess
This is a mess
Broken in two thousand tiny little pieces
Clear from the start
It would all fall apart
It's me versus you nobody's getting sentimental
I knew it would hurt
I'm covered in dirt
I never belonged and I don't want to go to heaven
The beginning of the end
My dearest friend
The beginning of the end is just the end of the beginning
I wanna go outside
I wanna feel alive again
I'm trying to survive
But the past is on my mind
When I work out where it went wrong
Everything will be alright
High as the sky
I'll never fly
Could stay up all night but it wouldn't make a difference
Why do I care
Nothing for me there
Move on with your life and pretend it's going somewhere
I'm sick of this shit
You're full of it
I see straight through you and I don't want to go to heaven
The beginning of the end
My dearest friend
The beginning of the end is just the end of the beginning
I wanna go outside
I wanna feel alive again
I'm trying to survive
But the past is on my mind
When I work out where it went wrong
Everything will be alright
I wanna go outside
I wanna feel alive again
I'm trying to survive

But the past is on my mind
When I work out where it went wrong
Everything will be alright
I wanna go outside
I wanna feel alive again
I'm trying to survive
But the past is on my mind
When I work out where it went wrong
Everything will be alright
