Sunbleached Girl

Shag Rock

Sunbleached Girl

She wants less I want more
She wants peace I want war
As the mist fades over the Chevrolet
She wants him I want her
It's not my pot to stir
Pour a little sugar she knows
I've got a sweet tooth for her ways
I'm addicted to her gaze

One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
La da da da dah da dah
La da da da dah yeah woah
La da da da dah da dah
La da da da dah yeah

As I lay back there
On my bamboo chair
And the shore break sings but brings her back in my head
She said she wants space but I just wanna see her face
Pour a little sugar she knows
I've got a sweet tooth for her ways
I'm addicted to her gaze oh yeah

One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
One step closer to the sunbleached girl who gets undressed, when she wants
La da da da dah da dah
La da da da dah yeah woah
La da da da dah da dah
La da da da dah yeah
