

Anything for You

Skydiggers

Fate,
a slight of hand,
sometimes too cruel,
to understand.

Love,
is beautiful,
the way it turns,
the way it bends.

And I would do anything for you,
to make it all go away for you.
Anything for you

Faith,
makes tough demands,
as we lie together,
hand in hand

Green,
I may have been
if I had the chance to,
I'd do it all again

And I would do anything for you
to make it all go away for you.
Anything for you

Time,
is now at hand,
nothing to fear
'cause nothing's as planned.

Faith,
you must believe,
walks a thin line,
Before it breaks.

And I would do anything for you,
to make it all go away for you.

Anything for you.

Anything for you.

Anything for you.

Anything for you.
