

Flashback

Kelly Rowland

I thought I was okay
Realizin' I made a mistake
I've been doin' some thinkin'
Ever since I saw you today
Maybe, I said some things that I didn't mean
Tryin' to change your ways
But my days ain't the same
Maybe, I should've stayed I had a
Flashback, I really love you
So sad, thought I was over you
Too fast, how I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback
Flashback, the mistakes you made weren't that bad
Now that I saw you, I want you back
How I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback, flashback
I wish that I could get back with you now
Don't wanna see another woman around
All these memories, thought I had you out of my mind
Baby, I keep tryin', I keep tryin' and it won't stop
These flashbacks, I don't want that
I just wanna go back
Where you messed up and erase that
I'm trippin', I'm in a zone, it's nothin' but a
Flashback, I really love you
So sad, thought I was over you
Too fast, how I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback
Flashback, the mistakes you made weren't that bad
Now that I saw you, I want you back
How I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback, flashback
You would call up, come and pick me up
Take me somewhere no one knows
Ocean, candle lit
Lay me down and take it slow
Unexpected messages, just to say 'Hey beautiful'
Gave me attention, make sure that you kept me close
But it's over now, but it's over now

But it's over now, but it's over now
Flashback, I really love you
So sad, thought I was over you
Too fast, how I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback
Flashback, the mistakes you made weren't that bad
Now that I saw you, I want you back
How I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback
Flashback, I really love you
So sad, thought I was over you
Too fast, how I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback
Flashback, the mistakes you made weren't that bad
Now that I saw you, I want you back
How I wish I could relive the past
Oh, flashback, flashback
