Crack Up

A.R. Kane

oooh
things all over, things start up again gotta have a (?)
mmm, gotta get flexible sometimes you got to change else you're gonna crack up againcrack up crack up crack up crack up againwhen dealing with a crackdown the healing doesn't matter you kinda have to sway with the wind (?) one little choice you've got to rearrange
else you're gonna crack up againcrack up crack up crack up crack up againthings all over, start it up again crack up and blow away like i know you would gotta be counted it's much to late to change
else you're gonna crack up againcrack up crack up crack up crack up againcracking up as things all start over crack up and blew away like i knew you would crack me up again you crack me up again we're cracking up again cracking up again
