

Beast In the Beauty

Absence of Concern

You reek of sex, perfume and cigarette
The taste of mascara running down your face
It's 3 am and I can't help me self
Kiss followed by a lie as my hands roll down your thigh

Wohh Wohh my beast in the beauty Wohh Wohh
You're the only one you are the only one that I love you now
I am the only one the only one who can brake into your beast

You hypocrite, pearl necklace crucifix
Your blood knees you pray to me so be sincere Your lies look sad, best f*ck you ever had you say the kinds of thing that i need to hear

Wohh Wohh my beast in the beauty Wohh Wohh
You're the only one you are the only one that I love you right now
I am the only one the only one who can brake into your beast

And though your someone else
You still remember how it feels
To end the night just right
With your head under the steering wheel

Fallin' for her fallin' so far down
Sometimes this life is all we have
Prepare to be burned, burned to the ground
Burned to the ground

Fallin' for her fallin' so far down
Sometimes this life is all we have
Prepare to be burned, burned to the ground

Wohh Wohh my beast in the beauty Wohh Wohh
What have you done to me
