

By Now

Grady Spencer & the Work

I've been singing about the thick and thin

Chip away at everything I've been

I've been swimming in a sea of sin, won't you pray for me?

All the things I thought I'd go and buy

Live forever, but I've got to die.

A dollar earned but still a 20 shy. Would you pray for me?

There's a soul way down deep.

Well the path I'm taking, and the mess it's making.

Well my heart's been breaking for years.

Well the earth starts quaking and my faith gets shaken, and the time its taken too.

Well by now you'd have thought I'd know...

When I was young I wanted to dress so nice.

Have a job that let me pay the price.

Shook them up and then I threw the dice.

?See they guess I lost?

There's times when a loss is still a win

My pants are dirty and they're wearing thin.

If I had the chance I'd do it all again.

Cuz I'm a happy man.

There's a soul way down deep.

Well the path I'm taking, and the mess it's making.

Well my heart's been breaking for years.

Well the earth starts quaking and my faith gets shaken, and the time its taken too.

Well by now you'd have thought I'd know...

There's a soul way down deep.

Well the path I'm taking, and the mess it's making.

Well my heart's been breaking for years.

Well the earth starts quaking and my faith gets shaken, and the time its taken too.

Well the path I'm taking, and the mess it's making.

Well my heart's been breaking for years.

Well the earth starts quaking and my faith gets shaken, and the time its taken too.

Well by now you'd have thought I'd know...

Lyrics Submitted by Naye

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>