

Fairweather

The Send

Fly, I am trying to fly
To leave it all behind
You, You could heal my wounds
I have tried to leave it all behind
To leave it You are the one
Who will keep me breathing
When all I have been
Is hurt by fairweather friends Lies, the world is full of lies
To lead me on
I, I could fix my eyes
Maybe this time
I will fix my eyes on You You are the one
Who will keep me breathing
When all I have been
Is hurt by fairweather friends Maybe this time
I can fix my eyes You are the one
Who will keep me breathing
When all I have been
Is hurt by fairweather friends You are the one
Who will keep me breathing
When all I have been
Is hurt by fairweather friends Fairweather friends
Fairweather friends
Fairweather friends
