Relax

The Workday Release

Relax close your eyes
And I'll sing you to sleep
And maybe in this melody
I hope you'll find peaceFall from the sky
Into the arms of your love
And open the door
To the heavens aboveSo maybe tonight
For the first time you'll dream
I hope that the ending
Is not what it seems
Where time won't apply
Until you wake up
For now just relax in this loveBut wait just one moment
Come close now my dear
I promise this lullaby
Will rid you of fearAnd know you are loved
As I rock you to sleep
And oh little one
This promise I keepSo maybe tonight
For the first time you'll dream
I hope that the ending
Is not what it seems
Where time won't apply
Until you wake up
For now just relax in this loveDarling just (run)
come and find your (peace)
darling just (run)
come and find your (peace)
