

Took You in My Arms

Mishka Shubaly

Every drop of water in the ocean.

Every grain of sand.

Every lonely high heel upon the shore.

Well the starfish are spellin' out your name on the ocean floor. I took you in my arms, we fell into my room,

I took you in my arms, I took you...

Maybe wake up out of breath,

Maybe wake up dead.

I don't want to wake up to find you Metal detectors on the beach

the ocean coughs up strange treasures at your feet

And that smell, it's not amber green...

Depressed detectives at the bar but they don't know

How it breaks my heart to hear your name on the radio

I took you in my arms, we fell into my room,

I took you in my arms, I took you...

Maybe wake up out of breath,

Maybe wake up dead.

I don't want to wake up to find you.
