

Kids Again (feat. Benjamin)

Sweet California

Do you remember carin'g 'bout nothing? When we were younger we cried over nothing
Collecting toys and cards, playing in the backyard
What a fun game that was!
But now you got a job being all grown up, oh
That game ain't funLet's go back
And be kids again, and be kids again
Let's go back
Where it all began, where it all began
We can be foolish and live like we're clueless
Without a care in the world
Let's go back
And be kids again, and be kids againDo you remember when you were sixteen?
They tried to teach ya but you were not listening
Breaking all the rules, we'd be hooking up to school, oh
What fun game that was!
But now you got a job being all grown up, ohThat game ain't funLet's go back
And be kids again, and be kids again
Let's go back
Where it all began, where it all began
We can be foolish and live like we're clueless
Without a care in the world
Let's go back
And be kids again, and be kids againWe're irresponsible, no one to answer to
Let it go and be young again
Let it go and be young again
We were so stupid but now we'd give anything toLet it go and be young again x2Let's go back
And be kids again, and be kids again
Let's go back
Where it all began, where it all began
We can be foolish and live like we're clueless
Without a care in the world
Let's go back
And be kids again, and be kids again

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>