

Prison Song

Carlton Williams

Cold chills, prison cells
Locked in, bars of steel
Leave my woman tonight
Just ain't feeling right
Cold chills, prison cells Oh my Lord, praise him be
Cold chills, prison cells
Set your, people free
Locked in, bars of steel
Be merciful to our abusers
Leave my woman tonight
They don't know what they do
Just ain't feeling right
Thinking you lost your senses
Oh my Lord, praise him be
Cold chills, prison cells
What can you do when they...?
Set your, people free
Locked in, bars of steel
Ooh, you better collect your pieces
Be merciful to our abusers
Leave my woman tonight
Freedom, it waits out here
They don't know what they do
Just ain't feeling right
You don't have to go to prison
Oh my Lord, praise him be
Cold chills, prison cells
But will it accomplish you?
Set your, people free
Locked in, bars of steel
Ku Klux Klan, they're laughing
Be merciful to our abusers
Leave my woman tonight
Damning the thought of you
They don't know what they do
Just ain't feeling right Condemning you to your suffering
Oh my Lord, praise him be
Cold chills, prison cells
Is that what you really want?

Set your, people free
Locked in, bars of steel
Prison, it's all a prison
Be merciful to our abusers
Leave my woman tonight
Marking your time on walls
They don't know what they do
Just ain't feeling right Think you better change your motto
Oh my Lord, praise him be
Cold chills, prison cells
Wiping away the mourn
Set your, people free
Locked in, bars of steel
There in the bars, let's follow
Be merciful to our abusers
Leave my woman tonight
Tell me your days aren't done
They don't know what they do
Just ain't feeling right "Vengeance is mine," said the Lord
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>