Hero and Leander

By Toutatis

Slip your trunks off
And I will light the lamp
These cold waters
Do you no favours

Straight lines
Curve in darkness
Direction will soon fail you
And though you makes haste
I will never be a fixed point to you

I had ten swimmers just as strong as you
I had ten swimmers
Where are they now?
You forge on
While my interest wanes

Thereâ€™s no better way to find her
