Aghoosh

Shahin Najafi

Where is your hug sweetheart
Where is your hug sweetheart
You have my tongue hard
Maybe you will be wound to heal
Is balm
In the battle, and now my tears night
I remember the tears of relief and perhaps a little
I am not aware of anyone but your pain inside
Anyone but you, because you're not a turning point for the time
For you I'm with you
Deny thee thy veil was naked
Where is your hug sweetheart
Your passion deep sense of pride and belief
You're weird and strange to me at the altar of assistance
Being as you're
You feel pure poetry reading
You simple ability
Is the reason you wont die
Where is your hug sweetheart
