

Nothing More

Decyfer Down

I'm sick of waking to the presence of the enemy,
I feel the weight of your disease and words infecting me,
I'm cutting ties now for the last time,
Driving the final nail to paralyze.

Don't think I'm before closure,
It's you I sever, be gone forever,
I want nothing more...
To me our time together,
Is dead and over, (and over, and over)
I want nothing more...

So many years you dragged your dirty lies on filthy roads,
This damage done to me I'm buried down where you belong...
I'm cutting ties now for the last time,
Dropping the rusty nails aside the lies,

(I want nothing more...)

I'm burning all these lies (I won't believe them again)
Your lies are useless now (You're gone and my life's began)

My life's began
