

Time

Daedalus

Morning,
the sun has rubbed his eyes in the air.
Rushing,
to search for a mail from my love.
Days passed waiting for answers to come;
now I stand with this piece of my heart in my hands. All this time, all the dreams I have,
all my life with you. "What is changing in my mind?
I feel empty,
my thoughts are not the same;
forgive me, I belong to a new one.
Try to find a new way, forget my name". Sudden shivers, realize that these words have stolen the sweetest tears from your eyes.
Sorrow, wasting your life with someone.
Never let this rain mark your fair innocence! All this time, all the dreams you have,
all your life renewed.
