

I.F.U.

Usher

I bet you feelin' me stare
The moment is real
But I know you ain't serious
But I know you prepare
You won't make it up the stairs
And you came over here
That means you gon'
Let me turn the lights on I just want you undivided
You should let me penetrate your everything
You've got me beyond excited
Baby step into my room I'm your broom
We don't need a wedding ring I think sex was made for strangers
Making love is for the ones who plan to stay together
How 'bout we embrace the danger
Girl I'm pretty sure that when it's all said and done
We gonna do whole lot of
We gonna do a whole lot of
Yeah! I ain't gotta be your man
You ain't gotta be my girl
Let's let go of everything they taught you in this world
We gonna do a whole lot of yeah I'm freakin' you, yeah
I'm freakin' you Listen
I'm not into fantasizing
I much rather put my hands on everything
I just hope that I'm invited yeah
Up into your room I'm your groom
But I ain't got a wedding ring I think sex was made for strangers
Making love is for the ones who plan to stay together
How 'bout we embrace the danger
Girl I'm pretty sure that when it's all said and done
We gonna do whole lot of (turn the lights on)
We gonna do a whole lot of
Yeah! I ain't gotta be your man
You ain't gotta be my girl
Let's let go of everything they taught you in this world
We gonna do a whole lot of Hey
Can't deny what's here between us
Right now
I can hear your heart beating

Holding back would be so dangerous I know you want to, listen

We gonna do a whole lot of

You gotta take to for me

We gonna do a whole lot of

You know you want to

Yeah I ain't gotta be your man

You ain't gotta be my girl

Let's let go of everything they taught you in this world

We gonna do a whole lot of yeah I'm freakin' you

No expectations on the first name bases

Is get together on exchange faces (I'm freakin' you)

Yeah
