

The Fault Line

Galactic Pegasus

All you perceived with eyes was an ending
In absence, youâ€™d hold me to the world
Will you be waiting there?
At the fault line?
Is this love built only on conditions?

I had only one condition
Can we feel now as we felt then?
Both my hearts in one decision
Can we feel now as we felt then?

Were you pretending?
Because it hurts
It seems that we love
We don't deserve

They are pouring you into a mold
Labels reading only endings
Will you be there?
At the fault line?
Dreams compressing into fears
I hope one day you understand
And you get what you've always deserved

But right now I can't be your guide
You have got to find your own light
