Hear Me Out

Frou Frou

I join the queue on your answer phone
And all I am is holding breath
Just pick up, I know you're there
Can't you hear, I'm not myselfWell go ahead and lie to me
You could say anything
Small talk will be just fine
Your voice is everything
We owe it to love and it all depends on youSo listen up, the sun hasn't set
I refuse to believe that it's only me feelingJust hear me out, I'm not over you yet
It's love on the line, can you handle itSo how do I do normal
A smile I fake
A permanent wave of
Cue-cards and fix-it kits
Can't you tell, I'm not myselfI'm a slow-motion accident
Lost in coffee rings and finger prints
I don't want to feel anything
But I do, and it all comes back to youSo listen up, the sun hasn't set
I refuse to believe that it's only me feelingJust hear me out, I'm not over you yet
It's love on the line, can you handle itSo listen up (Hear me out)
Look at me straight (This time you gotta listen to me)
Just hear me out (This time you gotta listen to me)
Don't make me wait (This time you gotta listen to me)
I'm not myself (This time you gotta listen to me)
I can't take this (This time you gotta listen to me)
Love's on the line
Is that your final answer?I join the queue on your answer phone
And all I am is holding breath
Just pick up, I know you're thereSo listen up, the sun hasn't set
I refuse to believe that it's only me feelingJust hear me out, I'm not over you yet
It's love on the line, can you handle itSo listen up, the sun hasn't set
I refuse to believe that it's only me feelingJust hear me out, I'm not over you
It's love on the line, can you handle itSo listen up, the sun hasn't set
I refuse to believe that it's only me feelingJust hear me out, I'm not over you yet
It's love on the line, can you handle it
