

Runnin Out of Love

Medina

Flashback

I feel like I've seen this place before

Memories from last night

Thought that I was passed that

Somehow I keep opening and closing the same door

The first step is the worst step I never know if I'm right or wrong or if it's worth it

And never on purpose and nobody's perfect

But something brings me right back to you We can't overlook goodbye

Can't help what I desire

Your love it takes me higher, higher

I keep heating up this fire

Confused and in denial

You keep my running in and out of love I keep runnin and runnin out of love, runnin

Runnin and runnin out of love

I keep runnin and runnin out of love, runnin

Runnin and runnin out of love ohh, ohh Look in the mirror I don't recognize who I used to be

If it were clearer I'd probably know exactly what I need

The first step is the worst step

I never know if I'm right or wrong or if it's worth it

And never on purpose and nobody's perfect

But something leads me right back to you We can't overlook goodbye

Can't help what I desire

Your love it takes me higher, higher

I keep heating up this fire

Confused and in denial

You keep my running in and out of love I keep runnin and running out of love, runnin

Runnin and runnin out of love

I keep runnin and runnin out of love, runnin

Runnin and runnin out of love ohh, ohh We can't overlook goodbye

Can't help what I desire

Your love it takes me higher

I can't keep myself from running

In the wrong direction

And it keeps leading to you

I'm running in and out of love in and out of love

In and out of love in and out of love

In and out of love in and out of love

In and out of love, of love I keep runnin and runnin out of love, runnin

Runnin and runnin out of love

I keep runnin and runnin out of love, runnin
Runnin and runnin out of love ohh, ohhRunnin and runnin out of love
I keep runnin and runnin out of love
Runnin and runnin out of love Ohh, ohh
