

Golden Green

Agnes Obel

[Verse 1]

All I have or should
Want to be but never could
It's coming at, it's coming at, it's coming at my heart
To spoil my soul with fire[Verse 2]

All my eyes can see is
Born out of your imagery
It's coming at, it's coming at, it's coming at my heart
To scorch the earth with fire

[Pre-Chorus]

Tell me who you really love
Tell me who you really love
Tell me who you really love[Chorus]
Who are you to take over my mind
With your eyes on me

All for you I am climbing the sky
Of golden green[Verse 3]
Angel green and blue
I'm gonna leave my mind with you

It's coming at, it's coming at, it's coming at my heart
I know, I see, I wanna be just free
I know, it craves, it's running through my veins
To spoil my soul with fire[Pre-Chorus]

Tell me who you really love
Tell me who you really love[Chorus]
Who are you to take over my mind
With your eyes on me

All for you I am climbing the sky
Of golden green[Outro]
