Shadow's Keeper

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

The shadow's creeping, only one way left to go
You hit the bottom where the silence only grows
It's never alone
You feel the fire burning sweet within your skin
You're holding on to all the branches crashing in It's pulling you in
But you feel the light shine so bright
But you feel the light shine so bright
What is the purpose if you feel so incomplete?
What is the reason if it beats you to your knees?
What do you keep?
Your eyes were wide but there's a world that keeps you blind
A painted serpent turning water into wine
Seeking light
But you feel the light shine so bright
But you feel the light shine so bright
You're begging for the truth but now you've seen too much
You're living in your head but never feel their touch
And everything was buried by the deep blue sky
Help me to breathe 'cause I don't wanna see the light
Just tell me to breathe 'cause I don't wanna be denied
Just tell me to breathe 'cause I don't wanna be denied

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/