

Ghosts Of Past Failures

Shadows Fall

The ghosts of past failuresFacing the reality
Of our own imperfectionsThe waves crash without warning
Overwhelmed and short of breath
Never able to escape
The bloodstains upon your handsI AM! Still bleeding you
From wounds you've never known
I AM! Still bleeding you
From wounds you've never knownThe core of our being Torn out and cast asideI never looked this far away
Never saw what lies ahead
In the midst of false comfort
The scars were hidden but never healed
