Teardrops

Helena Paparizou

Teardrops in my eyes Running down like a river Feel you when you're gone Even if I know that you are with her You are with herPromises you gave but took back
Is my addiction
Love you never gave
Is my obsession Promises you gave are all I have in mind
When you close the door
and totally eclipse my soulRivers drying out The sun will never shine without a reason
Make me understand
No matter how I cry
You still be with her And I'll be alone.Promises you gave
but took back
Is my addiction
Love you never gave
Is my obsession
Promises you gave are
all I have in mind
When you close the door
and totally eclipse my soulNever gonna feel never gonna heal
Always gonna run
always try to hide Never gonna feel
never gonna heal
Always gonna run
always try to hide
I'll be alone.Promises you gave
but took back
Is my addiction
Love you never gave

Is my obsession
Promises you gave are
all I have in mind
When you close the door
and totally eclipse my soul
