

Tough People Do

Brett Kissel

I remember dad all dressed underneath that old oak tree
The way we laid my grandpa down
For 13 years Iâ€™ve been his shadow, his little man
I was learning what hurt was all about

That was the first time I ever saw my daddy cry
And he said â€œSon, thatâ€™s the thing about lifeâ€•

Yea, the rainâ€™s gonna fall on us all
Your heartâ€™s gonna break sometimes
But thereâ€™s no way around it, lifeâ€™s full mountains
Youâ€™re gonna have to climb
But there ainâ€™t no crime in crying
You just gotta keep on trying
So remember, no matter what youâ€™re going through sponsored links
Tough times donâ€™t last
Tough people do

Baby itâ€™s been all smooth still and since we fell in love
But lately weâ€™ve been on a rocky road
But if I know you like I think I do
You ainâ€™t giving up
And there ainâ€™t no way in this world Iâ€™m letting go

Baby God put us together
And He donâ€™t make mistakes
Love is gonna be our shelter
From whatever comes our way

Yea, the rainâ€™s gonna fall on us all
Our heartsâ€™ gonna break sometimes
But thereâ€™s no way around it, lifeâ€™s full mountains
Weâ€™re gonna have to climb
But there ainâ€™t no crime in crying
We just gotta keep on trying
So remember, no matter what weâ€™re going through
Tough times donâ€™t last
Tough people do

No, there ainâ€™t no crime in crying
We just gotta keep on trying
So remember, no matter what youâ€™re going through
Tough times donâ€™t last
Tough people do
Tough times donâ€™t last
Tough people do

Tough people do
