

Truth Or Dare

Alex Parks

I watch you sleeping, you're dreaming again,
Are you flying? Are you falling?
Are you waiting to be brought out from the dark?
And as you're sleeping, can you feel me?
Are you watching? Are you watching?
You'll wake up in time, won't you
You'll wake up in time, will you? Will you?
So hold on, don't you even look down
You know what I've got to say
So hold on, don't you dare to be scared
A dream is just a truth or dare
I watch you resting, dreaming slumber stirs
Hours of waking, do you remember?
Were you hoping you would wake up somewhere else?
And as you rise up do you realize you were dreaming?
You were dreaming
You'll wake up in time, won't you?
You'll wake up in time, will you? Will you?

So hold on, don't you even look down
You know what I've got to say
So hold on, don't you dare to be scared
A dream is just a truth or dare
You've 'gotta wake up sleepy, you've 'gotta wake up till I come
Have another slice before they take you away
Give some good advice while your life goes astray
Undermine your future while your past is the same
So hold on, hold, don't you even look down
You know what I've got to say
So hold on, don't you dare to be scared
A dream is just a truth or dare, oh
A dream is just a truth or dare
A dream is just a truth or dare
A dream is just a truth or dare
