Burning Bright

Jon Maurer

(Verse 1)

Theres a frost upon your field now
An early winter
All your red reflecting roses
Wilted black

You were staring at the ocean
Beyond the cliffs edge
Was a face you had forgotten
Staring back

(Chorus)
You don't know where you been
Theres a darkness on the hillside
Closing in

If you can't outrun the night
Theres a candle in my window
Burning bright

(Verse 2)

All the owls in your oak tree
Ask stupid questions
'Cause you know for whom exactly they
Ring the bell

Theres a ship on the horizon
Its coming for us
Theres a fire on the mountain
Raisin' hell

(Chorus)
You don't know where you been
Theres a darkness on the hillside
Closing in

If you can't outrun the night
Theres a candle in my window

Burning bright

(Musical interlude)

You don't know where you been
Theres a darkness on the hillside
Closing in

If you can't outrun the night
Theres a candle in my window
Burning bright

Theres a candle in my window
Burning bright
