

Snuff

Slayer

It starts with vanity, arrogance and greed
Panic is my obsession
No one can escape, the thrill is much too great
Despair is my creation Everything obscene emanates from me
Homicide is on the rise
It all begins now, take your final bow
The camera never lies Action, torture, misery, endless suffering
Torment, agony captured for eternity
Action, you're the main attraction
Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny No one else around, razor wire bound
Insanity is so near
Heart begins to seize, watch you atrophy
Reality is now clear Take a look inside, many more have died
The Internet's an open door
Everyone can see, dying brutally
The audience begs for more Action, torture, misery, endless suffering
Torment, agony, captured for eternity
Action, you're the main attraction
Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future
