Shallow

Into Eternity

Disillusional thoughts
infect your view Assets fuel your shallowed integrity
Lost in a world of rejection Expose the hell you cannot hide
An outcast of society
An orphan of life's reality Retribution time will come Sarcastic ridicule confiningI fail to perceive or understand You failed to maintain, gone astrayLiquid promises drain with your lies Blaming others before yourself Forgotten disposable fool caught in a fictional daydream Skeptic, unbeliever
Taking everything for granted
