

Bottles

Otter Petter

I stare at the wall, and I sleep to dream
And the moonlight slips through the cracks of the shades like laser blade
And my skin starts to crawl, and my body aches
I wish I knew what i really wanted
Keeps me awake

It goes on and on for hours
It goes on and on for days
It goes on and on for hours

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall
Pushing daisies on the way

The clock in the hall - it's arms just creep
And with each event, every tick, every second seems to weep
And my eyes are like a doll's, so dim and true
And I can't admit that I need you more than I ever know

It goes on and on for hours
It goes on and on for days
It goes on and on for hours

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall
Pushing daisies on the way

I seems to take it all it stride
I take it back I never tried
I take it back I never tried

It goes on and on for hours
It goes on and on for days

It goes on and on for hours

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall

Pushing daisies on the way
Breaking bottles in the hall
Pushing daisies on the way

Breaking bottles in the hall
Breaking bottles in the hall
Breaking bottles in the hall
Breaking bottles in the hall
