No Integrity

Cut the Shit

We've got no integrity, but we sure do look good
We've got no integrity, but we sure do look goodLove, peace, war & destruction
It's all part of our daily production
Radio, satellite, cable TV
Please make sure you're smiling pretty
Beepers, voicmail, cellular phone
Now you can't call anywhere homeWe've got no integrity, but we sure do look good
We've got no integrity, but we sure do look goodSex, drugs, greed & addiction
It's all part of our new-found religion
Hair, jewelry, make-up, the works
Has anyone notices we've gone berserk?
Self-righteous, spoiked rotten pigs
With a million bucks it's easy to liveWe've got no integrity, but we sure do look good
We've got no integrity, but we sure do look good
But we sure go look good, yeah
