New World Blues

Gov't Mule

Life is not a compromise
Though it often turns to this
Unintended suicide
As if our fate's sealed with a kissWe're all taught to rise above
Can't let ourselves be hurt by loveSo tell me what I have to lose
I'm ready to feel these new world bluesDreams are only of a new world
Instead of making this one right
But 'Run away' is not the answer
Still we all want to take flightNever knowing what we seek Think our pain is so uniqueSo tell me what I have to lose
I'm ready to feel these new world bluesHeroes are not to cry
So hold your head up high
The future is ours to see
So come on and rescue meSo tell me what I have to lose
I'm ready to feel these new world blues
So tell me what I have to lose
I'm ready to feel these new world bluesLife is not a compromise
